!!One last thing - important!!

Running a bulk involves some work. Please think about whether you really want the knobs, whether you have the money when demanded and whether you agree on the terms stated before putting your name here. I will not send you more than one PM and one invoice and I will not extend the deadlines for both because you accidentally missed it for whatever reason (vacations, spam filter, lost job, broken car, broken arm, hurricane, dengue fever, etc.). Instead i will strike your name off that list. Anyway if an unregistered package get's lost it will not be replaced (that has never happened though).
